WHAT'S ON

Welcome to the St Cuthbert's Hospice Christmas Fair 2024! There is lots on throughout the day and we hope you enjoy your visit.

Santa's Grotto

For a suggested donation of £5, join Santa in his Grotto! Each child will receive a sweet treat gift, book and nice list certificate. Please be aware there may be queues to meet Santa, thank you for your patience.

Rock Choir North East and Stuart Wright's Gavioli Fairground Organ

Our Rock Choir friends will be performing Christmas classics 11am-11:30am and 12:30pm-1pm in the West Mall and find Stuart Wright Funeral Services' amazing travelling organ outside by the entrance.

Face Painting and Workshops

Find face painting (1pm-4pm), card making, crafting and biscuit decorating workshops and cakes in aid of the Hospice in the East Mall near the grotto. Kindly supported by Libby Ayley and New College Durham staff and students.

THANK YOU!

We really couldn't do what we do without the support of so many dedicated Hospice volunteers, supporters and donors who have helped us make the fair such a success today!

A huge thank you to New College Durham for hosting us and for the kind support of staff and students who are volunteering their time.

Thank you as well to our generous prize donors:

Ramside Hall, Bowburn Hall, The Croft Hotel Darlington, Julie Dobson, Mortons Law, Malcolm Rolling, Imagine a Cake, Wildflower and Rose, Durham Brewery, True North Emporium, Diane Phoroah, New College Durham, Bespoke Tea Rooms, Market Hall Wines, Bako, Greggs, Sainsbury's Newcastle Road, Cake and Cupcakery and Durham University.

And all of the local businesses who acted as 'donation drop off stations' before the Fair:

Newcastle Building Society, Bako, New College Durham, Bespoke Tea Rooms, Luxe Hair Salon Witton Gilbert, London Hair Company, Durham University ASC Department and the Woodman Inn Durham.

Finally, a massive thank you as well to all those who have kindly and skillfully crafted hand-made gifts and sweet treats for sale at the Fair!

WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS
